Death of Alger Davis

The community was greatly shocked on Friday last at the news of the death of Alger Davis, who died at a hospital in Montreal, where he had been taken the previous Wednesday for medical treatment. Although Alger had not seemed to be feeling quite as well for a few weeks past his condition was attributed in part to the hot weather and was not considered very serious.

When his brother-in-law, Henry Bailey, parted with him at the hospital Thursday morning, he seemed to be very comfortable and in good spirits; but before dark he had passed away, death being due to progressive muscular atrophy, with which he had been ill two and one-half years.

Funeral services were held at the house Monday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Baker of the Cong'l church of Morrisville officiating, with Albert Whitcomb in charge. The bearers were Henry Bailey, Ernest Butterfield, brothers-in-law, Alton Horner, Berton, Harry and Charles Davis, cousins. Interment was at the cemetery at Hyde Park Center.

Alger S. Davisson of Edward and Aletta (Foster) Davis was born in Hyde Park Sept. 21, 1878. He leaves a father and mother, three sisters—Mrs. E. Butterfield of St. Johnsbury, Mrs. Chas. Swift of Fort Worth, Texas, and Mrs. Harry Bailey of this place, besides many distant relatives and a host of friends. Alger was liked by all and will be greatly missed. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of all in their great affliction.

Those from out of town to attend the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Butterfield of St. Johnsbury, Rodney Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Foster, Mrs. Mabel Foster and son, Mrs. Myrtle McGinnis and son of Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Morey, Mrs. Fred Warren, Mrs. Henry Lovejoy of Hardwick, Miss Goldie Davis of North Craftsbury, Mr. and Mrs. Barton Davis of Morrisville and Mrs. Roy Jones of Cambridge.
